

Learning and Interactions

15 September 2015
Manchester Central

Supporting people who are deafblind –
inspiring your practice

Hosted by Seashell Trust and Sense

A conference designed to help professionals support people live meaningful and enriched lives. Featuring talks from Dr Jan Van Dijk, leading practitioner, researcher and advocate in the field of deafblindness, Graham Firth, Director of the Intensive Interaction Institute, and Gail Deuce, specialist in CHARGE syndrome

Programme includes:

- International speakers and leading experts in the deafblind field
- Workshops on a range of topics such as wellbeing and complex needs, early interactions, employment, dysphagia, sensory integration, sleep, transition, and communication
- Networking with other professionals within the field
- CPD certificate of attendance

Register today

www.sense.org.uk/learningandinteractions

Who should attend?

Professionals in health, social care, and education who have a focus on supporting people with learning disabilities and/or sensory impairments.

The conference costs £160. This includes refreshments and lunch during the day as well as a CPD certificate of attendance

Registered charity no. 289868

Contact us

conference&events@sense.org.uk

020 7014 9305

(voice or text)

#inspiringpractice